

Aligning with values / finding purpose

“A value is a way of being or believing that we hold most important. Clarity of values is an essential support, a North Star in times of darkness... we only have one set of values... we don't have personal and professional values.” – Brené Brown

Which 3 values would you pick, if you could only pick 3?

Activity - If you had to write a couple of sentences to capture - however imperfectly - the key contribution that you find most meaningful, most rewarding to bring to the world, how would you say it?

What I find most rewarding is...
